Sugar for Antmals It appears there is much more nourish ment in sugar than has been generally suspected. Recent experiments with ani-mals have shown that sugar can be converted into beef and fat Sugar has be me so cheap in Europe that it has been fed out to cattle quite freely. In one series of experiments it was proved that fifty kilos of sugar increased a single ani-nomical mal's weight nearly sixteen kilos more that if the animal had no sugar. This gives a very handsome profit, and the meat from these animals was found to be of a very superior quality. Five or six pounds of agar a day was all that an ox would take with zest. Unlike children, the young cattle had but little desire for sweets Heretofore it has been supposed that sugar was merely heat producing, but it seems, under the subtle chemistry of nature, to

PROM LIFE TO DEATH is but a moment if rheumatism or neural-gia strikes the heart. These diseases are the most painful and the most dangerous of any to which human kind is liable. They fly from one part to another without a moment's warning, and liniments and other outward applications are in themselves dangerous because they are liable to drive the disease to some vital organ and cause instant death. Rheumatism and neuralein are diseases of the blood, and can neuralgia are diseases of the blood, and can only be reached by a remedy which will drive from the blood the dangerous acids.

Such a remedy is Athlophoros. It has been oroughly tested and is a safe, sure cure Robert Sprotbery, Driver on Cedar Ave Car Line, and who lives at 6 Glendale Ave., Cleveland, Ohio, said in relation to his rheumatism: I have been troubled for about three years with rheumatism in my hip. I have had many severe attacks, that rendered it impossible for me to work. These attacks would often last from four to six weeks, but I am glad to say I have found the medicine that masters the disease and drives it away. I used Athlophoros for one of these bad attacks and with but a few one of these bad attacks and with but a few doses I was rid of the rheumatism and pain. Have you had any return of the disease was asked. Yes, I have never used Ath-lophoros steadily, as I am well satisfied to use it as I do. As soon as I feel the first symptoms of rheumatism I take a dose or two of Athlophoros and thus avoid the attack. I always keep it on hand and would not be without it. Robert D. Smith, of London, Ohio, has had an attack of rheumatic fever, which for a time rendered him helpless. One bottle of Athlophoros cured him, and though this was nearly two years ago, he has not had

A Curious Old Custom. It used to be the custom many years ago in an Esopus, now Kingston, for all thrifty dames to prepare "grave ciothes," for the different members of the family. With the growth of a child the old "grave clothes" would be discarded—perhaps given to an improvident or shiftless neighbor to be used in time of need-and new an extensive breeder of Jersey cattle, garments would be promptly made to replace the old. The hipporrome was crowded. One-half the spectators were ladies. Wealth and beauty and fashion and aristocracy were there in great force. The arena was ar-ranged in orthodox fashion. The ground was covered with white sand. The posts were draped with crimson cloth. There was a close board fence six feet high all around the outside, separating the arena from the front row of spectators by a space six or seven feet wide, into which the bull fighters could leap for safety when hard pressed by the ferocious beasts none came. Then there appeared a dimin-utive bull, surely not more than 2 years and the iye, when common and the and oils used in soap making and the utive buil, surely not more than 2 years grease and dirt extracted by soap sads old, and small for that age. He entered the arena with a sorely be-wildered and frightened air, and slowly walked forward to one of the red draped posts. Against this he began subbing his head and neck, as cattle do against the trees in their pastures. His horns, I no-ticed, were small, and on the tip of each was fastened, for safety's sake, a metal ball as big as a door knob! Presently he turned and walked toward one of the men, who quickly ran away. The bull looked after him as if puzzled, and then turned toward another. The second man stood his ground until the bull was close to him, and then, after the manner of a back. The bull presently entered into the spirit of the fun, and trotted briskly about from one man to the other, giving each a chance to jump over him. Then he went W H.SMITH,

This operation was gone through twice Then the men got a lot of red, white and blue rosettes, stuck them to his sides with daubs of glue, and led him away in triumph. This was all there was to the performance, the same play being re-peated over and over again with new bulls. There was nothing even approxi-mating to danger, and there was nothing half as exciting as the average riding in a circus. High prices were paid for admission to the first show under the idea that there would be something very ex-citing, but almost every one was disap-pointed, and if the government had not forbidden any more "fights" I doubt if they would have secured paying patron-age.—Paris Cor. and consequently incurable. It is impossible to describe her sufferings. Her bedy from the crown of her head to the soles of her feet was a mass of decay, masses of feesh rotting off and leaving great cavities. Her fingers festered and three or four main dropped off at one time. Her limbs contracted by the fearful ulceration, and for several years she did not leave her bad. Her weight was reduced from 125 to 69 lbs. Perhaps some faint idea of her condition can be gleaned from the fact that three pounds of Cosmoline or ointment were used per week in dressing her sores. Finally the physicians acknowledged their defeat by this Black Wolf, and commended the surface to her all-wise Creator.

Her husband hearing wonderful reports of the use of Swirr's Syrecting (S. S. S.), prevailed on her to try it as a last resort. She began its use under protest, but soon found that her system was being releved of the poison, as the sores assumed a red and healthy color, as though the blood was becoming pure and active. Mrs. Balley continued the S. S. S. until last February; every sore was healed; she discarded chair and crutches, and was for the first time in twelve years a well woman. Her husband, Mr. C. A. Bailey, is in business at Fig. Blackstone Street. Boston, and will take plensure in giving the details of this wonderful cure. Send to us for Treatise og Bood and Skin Diseasen, mailed free.
